PREA Your Role in Responding to Sexual Abuse

This is the Your Role in Responding to Sexual Abuse course. This course shows how sexual abuse in prisons and jails can be prevented by all correctional staff members adhering to the PREA standards. It discusses how every staff member plays an important role in reporting and responding to sexual abuse, as well as the negative impact of not reporting, or incorrectly reporting cases of sexual abuse.

This course will empower you with guidance on how to recognize the behaviors of a sexual abuse victim in custody, in addition to best practices for timely and effective responses to sexual abuse.

You may complete lessons in any order, but all lessons must be completed before the Final Assessment button becomes active.
